We've loved blending playful pops of colour with soothing tones to create a space that feels fun yet relaxing, somewhere we can truly switch off and recharge. The snug room has become our sanctuary: a calm, cosy spot to shut out the world on a Friday evening, watching the sunset through the bi-fold doors. The kitchen is the heart of the home, a warm, sociable space where we love hosting friends for coffee. We're excited to move up north to be closer to family, but we are disappointed to be leaving as we felt this house has so much potential for ourselves to grow into with a family - it's so spacious, and now has the calming feel that we sought to create when we moved in.
