"This was my first home, which I shared with friends and then with my partner. It has been great for hosting friends and family with a lawn, a fire pit area, and an outside dining space on the decking. I've enjoyed working from home in my office, which looks out at our huge pear tree. I love the area too, with Bristol Sweet Mart on our doorstep and the town centre just a quick cycle away or a 20-minute walk."
