"Some of my favourite things about the house include the views. In the summer the sun streams into the spacious kitchen, and from the garden you can see over Victoria Park, and onto Aston Court and the suspension bridge in the distance. It's a great place to watch the iconic Bristol hot air balloons fly across the city. The community in this area are the best, people say hello and smile, which sounds crazy, but hasn't been the case everywhere I have lived. Finally there is everything you need on your doorstep, parks, schools, shops, bars and restaurants, and unlike many areas in Bristol you can always find a spot to park normally right outside the house. I know whoever buys this property will be just as happy as I always was."
