"Castle Close is in a lovely quiet spot next door to Blaise Hamlet which was built in the early 1800s. It's within walking distance to Blaise Castle estate where we've enjoyed many walks and picnics and have been able to take advantage of its convenience for the Legends Summer Music Festival and other organised events.

The neighbours are very friendly and are always happy to get involved in events such as the Jubilee celebration that we had in early June. We are confident that whoever buys this house can be very happy here.

We are also going to really miss this as our home but our priority now is to downsize, so that we can realise our plan towards retirement and to move closer to our grandchildren in South Gloucester and Stroud."
