"I love starting the day in my sun-trap of a garden, coffee in hand, catching the early sun and the birds nudging me to get on with the day. The south-facing extension transformed the house, flooding the living and dining space with light and making it perfect for gathering friends. I also love knowing that the minute I walk out the door, I'll bump into neighbours and friends. It's that mix of home and community that makes Greenbank so hard to leave."
