" Our home in The Rock gave us something we thought was impossible: a cosy country cottage in the city. We drink our morning coffee in the garden while listening to the bird song and the babbling brook. We can stroll to Sandy Park High Street to grab our groceries and deli treats. If we wander the other way across Victory Park, we end up at Hop Union Brewery for a pint. Or we stay right here in The Rock, pick blackberries, have a BBQ, pull up carrots in our veggie patch with our two-year-old and look out for our resident frog chilling by the pond. "
