'We've loved living in St Werburghs for the past three years, and are so sad to be leaving. With friendly neighbours, a variety of shops and restaurants right on our doorstep on Mina Road, outstanding pubs like the Duke of York close by, and access to peaceful green spaces such as Narroways Nature Reserve, it's been a wonderful place to call our home. We had a great time updating the property during our time there, and hope the new owners enjoy living on John Street as much as we have.'
