"When I moved in with two small children, the house was our haven, we gave it a lot of love and in return it kept us safe. My children grew up here and this house has always been filled with laughter, silliness, and happy memories. Having the park and the cycle path on our doorstep meant that we never had to go far to have adventures together, or we could just sit in the garden with the sun on our faces. The area is so friendly and welcoming, we will miss our neighbours terribly."
