"We have lived in Totterdown for about 20 years and just love the neighbourhood, especially all the brilliant local businesses. You can find amazing sourdough bread and fresh food in the local shops, as well as great food and a great atmosphere in the local pubs and restaurants. It's also really useful being so close to the city centre and just a 10mins walk from Temple Meads train station - a day out in Bath is just 20mins on the train. The local parks are just wonderful, and Arnos Vale cemetery is great for walking the dog and stopping for coffee and cake at the lovely cafe there. It feels wild and beautiful - you can really enjoy all of the seasons and can almost forget you are in the city! We really enjoyed growing delicious veg and fruit in the Perrets park allotments, which have the best views for an allotment ever! We also created an edible garden at home and enjoy having BBQs in the summer with the backdrop of the pretty & colourful Totterdown houses. One of my favourite things about living on Knowle Road is the most gorgeous view of the city skyline - complete with the iconic Clifton Suspension Bridge. It's so pretty at
