"We've really loved living here. The kitchen and dining space gets loads of light and is where we spend most of our time, especially with the doors open onto the garden in the summer. The decking is a real sun trap, perfect for sitting out in the afternoon and into the evening, and the sunsets over Bristol are honestly something special. The magnolia tree in the garden is another favourite, especially when it's in bloom. The lounge is really cosy, particularly in the winter with the fire going. It's a proper place to hunker down. We know loads of our neighbours and have made some really good friends here, and having fresh bread delivered just a couple of doors down on a Saturday is a bit of a highlight. Being able to walk straight out into Stoke Park or down to the allotments has also been brilliant. It's one of those places that just feels easy to live in."
