"We bought this house in 2016 thinking we might stay for just a couple of years, but over nine very happy years later, it's still been a hard choice to leave. Brislington has given us so much more than we ever expected - the perfect blend of Bristol's urban life, whilst also feeling like a close-knit village community. We've loved our sunny garden; every spring, it bursts into life with peonies, anemones and daisies and with no neighbours behind, it feels wonderfully quiet and private as well as being a haven for wildlife. Some of our happiest memories in this house are enjoying BBQs and sunsets on the decking, watching the birds in the trees"
