"My grandmother met my grandfather in the Lonely Hearts column of the Bristol Evening Post after both losing their 1st husband and wife very young. My grandmother's room was at the top back and my grandfather's room was at the top front of the house. The front downstairs bedroom was the room had a large table where they'd enjoy doing jigsaw puzzles and crosswords together. They were keen gardeners and won Bristol in Bloom 5 years running. The house always smelled of cake as my grandmother enjoyed baking."
