"Being a stone's throw from Victoria Park is such a wonderful thing to have in the city. And it's also just a short 20-25 minute walk into the Waterfront. It's a lovely walk through the park on an autumn day to the Victoria Park Pub, where there's a great vibe in the evenings. Being in this part of Bristol is awesome because you are so close to the centre and the train station, and you're also just a half an hour's drive up over Dundry Hill to the Chew Valley and the Mendips."
