"What we'll miss most about Garnet Street is the sense of belonging. The community vibe is so genuine; we have brilliant neighbours who have made our time here so special. It's a surprisingly peaceful pocket of Bedminster, yet we love that we can be on North Street in five minutes. Whether it's popping out to the independent shops or meeting friends at our favourite local pubs, everything feels like it's right on our doorstep. Combining that local energy with quiet nights back at home by the log burner has given us the best of both worlds."
