"We've absolutely loved living in this flat – it's such a peaceful and private spot that feels like a little hidden haven, even though we're right in the heart of Clifton. One of the things we've enjoyed most is the outdoor space – we made the front courtyard have a Mediterranean vibe and it's great for soaking up the sun with a morning coffee. The rear garden and patio are completely private, and we have so many wonderful memories of barbecues with friends here. We have loved the flats spacious feel and character, with its high ceilings and beautiful period sash windows. We're really going to miss living here."
