"We've loved living in Totterdown, it's such a great community with so many lovely cafes, bakeries, restaurants, bars and of course – people! We've made lifelong friends since moving here, and so it's always going to be a special place to us. One of the attributes that makes Totterdown unique, is that whilst being in close proximity to the city centre and Temple meads, it has access to two beautiful green spaces in Victoria Park and Perretts Park.
This was our first home together, and we've had such a great time living here and will be sad to leave. We honestly feel Totterdown is still underrated in Bristol, and it's clearly on an upwards trajectory with so much investment coming into the area, whilst maintaining its charm and community spirit"
