"We absolutely love the location - it's a minute's walk from Church Road (rather dangerously close to Loaf!) but it's on a quiet no-through road making it peaceful. We also face gardens rather than houses so it doesn't feel at all hemmed in. It's our first home we have owned together and we have thoroughly enjoyed living here: St George's Park is gorgeous and the river and Troopers Hill are lovely walks. The Old Stillage and Red Lion are both five minutes away and our favourite pubs in Bristol!"
