"Living here feels like a country cottage in the city tucked away but still close to Easton's buzz. The peaceful garden is our favourite part, in spring and summer we have morning coffee outside and watch great tits flying in and out of the bird box in the oak tree. Inside, we've loved cooking while looking out over the garden and relaxing by the wood-burner. Favourite local spots: samosas from Jeevan's, coffee from Radical Roasters, and a pint at The Sugar Loaf."
