"We have loved living at Upper Perry Hill but it's time for our next adventure! The street itself is so warm and welcoming with a WhatsApp group that are always to hand to borrow some eggs from or ask for recommendations. Southville has a really family-friendly community so you are bound to bump into someone you know for a play date or a coffee along North Street. My children have loved playing in Dame Emily park and calling on their friends in the area. Another favourite has been Windmill Hill City Farm and Victoria Park both of which are within a ten-minute walk. Wapping Wharf, full of independent shops and cafes, is just a couple of minutes' walk over the bridge. We love grabbing a coffee and strolling along the harbourside on the weekend, or picking up some Salt and Malt chips on a Friday evening and watching the sun go down."
