"From the first moment of stepping into our house we were in awe of how light it was, and the space on offer. There's a great community centre in Hanham for lots of activities, which our family have thoroughly enjoyed. I have made lots of friends there too. Kingswood is walking distance away although there are buses that go there and into Cabot Circus. Sadly it is time to move on & downsize but the house needs another family to put life into it again."
