"Somerset Road was our first home together and we've made many happy memories here. From hosting friends for dinner parties in the living area, watching the hot air balloons in summer go over our heads whilst lying in bed, or having Arnos Vale on your doorstep to walk around. Our favourite thing to do however, has to be watching the fireworks over the city during new year. It's great to open up the velux window in the bedroom, pop our heads out and just watch the sky light up."
