"We left Easton with our toddler for more space and greenery—and found it here. It was so peaceful when we arrived. Since then we've had twins and still have room for an office/guest room. We've loved hosting in the big kitchen, seating 12 at our table. The street is quiet and feels like the countryside. The area's full of great spots—Everyday Thai, Crafty Egg, Fed, the Greyhound, and a pub with a new Asian fusion truck at the end of the road. Parks, pubs, and green space in all directions."
