"We've absolutely loved living in this tucked-away, unique little corner of Bedminster. It was the distinctive glazed brick houses on Nelson Street that first caught our eye, but it's the friendly neighbours who truly care about the community that has kept us here. Living here has been perfect for us—walk one way, and you'll find yourself in a field among the cows at Yew Tree Farm. Walk the other, and you're on bustling North Street, lined with independent cafés, shops, a theatre, and a lively evening atmosphere. We've also loved exploring Leigh Woods and Ashton Court, both just a short distance away, providing endless green space and stunning views over Bristol."
