"St George is a diverse, friendly and vibrant area with a growing number of independent eateries - Orchard Coffee and Co. is a particular fave; St George's Park is the best in Bristol; and the local schools are great. We've done a lot of work to the house and garden, which has served as a cosy backdrop for many of life's big moments - the birth of our son, our daughter's first day at school and many holidays. We've loved playing in the garden with our young ones as they've grown."
