"This house was my first property, and it's been such a gem! Having Victoria Park just up the road was perfect for my dog, and I could easily walk to work in the heart of Bristol every day.

One of my favourite spots in the home is the view from the front (main) bedroom – I've captured many great sunrises and sunsets on the horizon. You can even watch the hot air balloons drift by on the occasional morning! The kitchen and dining room have truly been the heart of the house. It's been the ideal space for dinner parties, as well as a cosy spot to cook and enjoy the fruits and vegetables grown in the garden (which came in handy during lockdown!).

It's been a real joy to call the house my first home and I have made many happy memories living here."
