OWNERS COMMENTS

Nestled in a picturesque semi rural setting attractive three-bedroom character cottage offering an enchanting blend of historic period charm and practical modern family living, set in one of Herefordshire's most desirable village locations. This lovely home is defined by two well-proportioned reception rooms featuring a spacious cosy lounge, rich in period features that overlooks the gardens and includes a striking wood burning stove that adds to the charm and provides an inviting focal point for everyday living and entertaining.

New underlay and carpets have been fitted to the ground floor with quality cushioned vinyl to the kitchen.

The heart of the house is the spacious a spacious kitchen with original exposed beams that extends in to a generous breakfast area, creating a bright and sociable space perfect for morning meals and family gatherings. The accommodation flows with ease from room to room, combining comfort and function throughout. The first floor offer a master bedroom overlooking the established gardens and countryside. There are also a further two bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Practical benefits include central heating and double glazing and the property has been well cared for to retain its inherent charm while meeting the needs of contemporary living.

Externally, the cottage sits within lovely generous private gardens, providing peaceful outdoor space for children to play, gardening, or summer entertaining. There is a detached garage with further off-road parking, a real asset in a village setting and rare for properties of this age and type.

The setting on the edge of the popular village of Withington offers an excellent rural lifestyle without compromising on convenience. Withington is a well-established Herefordshire village with a strong community feel, historic features and local amenities including a village school, village hall and pub, and is surrounded by rolling countryside. The parish had an estimated population of around 1,500-1,800 people, giving a true village atmosphere yet supporting everyday services and activities.

Hereford, with its wider range of shops, services and transport links, lies approximately five miles to the south-west, making this location ideal for those seeking a rural home with ready access to city conveniences.

This rare character home offers an ideal opportunity for those looking for a family home with its unique combination of period charm and modern convenience that makes it a truly special find.
