A Rare Chance to Rent a Beautifully Converted Chapel from 1872

This remarkable detached chapel offers a unique and character-filled home. Thoughtfully converted in the late 1990s to early 2000s, it still showcases many of its original architectural features, blending historical charm with modern living.

The ground floor features a spacious open-plan living area with a suspended floor that flows into a well-designed kitchen and dining space. Just off the kitchen, there's a bathroom and a comfortable bedroom.

A striking spiral staircase leads to the first floor, where you'll find a second bedroom and a further bathroom. Continue up to the top floor to find an impressive attic bedroom full of character.

The chapel enjoys stunning, far-reaching views that truly need to be seen to be appreciated.

Outside, the property benefits from a generous garden and ample off-road parking
