2 Tocknell Court Box Road, Cam, Dursley, GL11 5ER

SITUATION

The property occupies a most pleasant position on this unique architect designed small development of ten houses situated in Box Road on the outskirts of Cam village. Tocknell Court adjoins the A4135 and is within approximately half a mile from the village centre which offers a growing range of facilities including a Tesco supermarket, independent retailers, post office, doctor and dental surgeries and a choice of three primary schools. The property is also well placed for nearby Cam and Dursley 'Park and Ride' railway station which has regular services to Gloucester, Bristol and Cheltenham with connections to the national rail network. The adjoining town of Dursley has a wider range of shopping facilities, swimming pool, library and The Vale Hospital. The property is also within close proximity of the main A38 providing access to the larger centres throughout the south west via the adjoining M5/M4 motorway network.

DIRECTIONS

If travelling from Cam village centre, from the roundabout with Tesco's proceed in a northerly direction on the A4135 for approximately three quarter of a mile passing the Shell petrol station on the left and take the turning on the right signposted Park and Ride Railway Station, continue for approximately 80 metres and turn left into Tocknell Court. The parking is located on the right hand side and the property is the second one in on the left hand side of the development.

DESCRIPTION

Tocknell Court was constructed approximately 30 years ago and is set in large communal gardens. This attractive horseshoe development was constructed to replicate a stable conversion with parking area separated from the main building enabling each property to overlook attractive lawned area. The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall which gives access to pleasant lounge with bow window to front and large understair cupboard. The lounge leads to a dining room and fitted kitchen with rear door leading out into the attractive private garden. On the first floor there are two bedrooms along with the family bathroom. The property also benefits from extensive communal gardens and parking.
