45 Hopton Road, Cam, GL11 5PD

SITUATION

This attractive cottage is situated in the popular semi-rural location in Upper Cam. The village centre is within a few minutes drive where there can be found shopping facilities including Tescos and a range of local traders, doctors and dentist surgeries, chemist, churches and public houses. Dursley town centre is also within a short drive which offers a wider range of shopping facilities along with Sainsburys supermarket. Recreational facilities include library, swimming pool and community centre. The property is located adjoining a public footpath which provides a range of country walks. Hopton Road is well situated for travel to the larger centres of Gloucester, Bristol and Cheltenham via the M5/M4 motorway network. Cam and Dursley have a Park and Ride railway station bringing Gloucester and Bristol within 20 minutes and 30 minutes rail travel respectively.

DIRECTIONS

From Dursley town centre proceed north-west out of town on the A4135 (Kingshill Road). After the school and fire station turn right into Kingshill Lane and proceed down the incline bearing right into Church Road and left into Hopton Road and number 45 will be found immediately on the right hand side.

DESCRIPTION

This characterful Grade II listed cottage, now requiring general modernisation, retains many original features including exposed beams and timbers throughout. The ground floor offers a kitchen/diner and a separate living room. On the first floor, there are two bedrooms, including a master with en suite, along with a family bathroom. The second floor provides two further interconnecting bedrooms, both of a good size and featuring exposed beams. Outside, the property enjoys rear gardens and off-road parking to the side. With its period charm and potential for improvement, this property offers an excellent opportunity to create a beautiful home in a desirable setting.
