Little Woodborough 2 Dursley Road, Dursley, GL11 6PE

SITUATION

Located in a tucked-away position on the edge of Dursley, No. 2 Dursley Road enjoys a peaceful setting with easy access to the town's amenities. Dursley offers a wide range of shops, schools (including a senior school), leisure facilities, and transport links, while being surrounded by stunning Cotswold countryside and walking trails. The property is well placed for commuters, with the M5 and A38 nearby, and Cam & Dursley railway station offering direct connections to Bristol and Gloucester. The area also benefits from a number of local attractions, independent schools, and historic landmarks.

DIRECTIONS

From Dursley Town centre, proceed north west on Castle Street taking the 2nd exit at the roundabout onto Parsonage Street. Proceed through Kingshill going over the mini roundabout and taking the first exit on the next mini roundabout by the police station. Head up Dursley road for approximately 300ft before turning right onto a private road. No. 2 can be found towards the end of this road on the right.

DESCRIPTION

Originally a stone-built coach house and stables dating back to 1865, this beautifully extended five-bedroom detached home combines period character with modern living. Set across two floors, the spacious layout features a generous entrance lobby, dual-aspect lounge/games room with double-sided wood burner, bright conservatory, and open-plan kitchen/dining area with countryside views. A utility room and cloakroom complete the ground floor. Upstairs offers five bedrooms, two with en-suites, a stylish family bathroom and ample storage throughout. Outside, enjoy landscaped gardens, raised decking, a garden room, gravelled driveway, garage/workshop with EV charging, and stunning rural surroundings.
