Field Row Cottage Dursley Road, Cambridge, GL2 7AE

SITUATION

The property is situated off a long driveway, which serves Field Row Cottage in a convenient position in the hamlet of Cambridge. The property is a few moments drive from the A38, which has onward access to the M5/M4 motorway networks. The adjoining village of Slimbridge has a primary school, village hall, post office and the village is home to the famous Wildfowl and Wetlands Trust founded by Sir Peter Scott. The nearby village of Cam has a Tesco's supermarket along with 'Park and Ride' railway station with onward connections to the national rail network. Dursley town is approximately three miles distance and has a wider range of shopping facilities along with Sainsbury's supermarket, swimming pool, sports hall and secondary schooling.

DIRECTIONS

From Dursley town centre, proceed out of town in a north westerly direction on the A4135 for approximately two miles into the village of Cam and continue through the village on the A4135 and prior to the Slimbridge roundabout take the turning on the right into Wisloe Road. Proceed for approximately 400 metres bearing sharp left and continue for approximately 200 metres. Opposite M.D. Collins can be found two drives and the driveway to Field Row Cottage is the left hand driveway, continue for approximately 100 metres up the driveway and the property will be found on the right hand side.

DESCRIPTION

Field Row Cottage, built in the 1960s, is a well presented and private property accessed via an adopted lane leading to just one other home and a public footpath. Set on a generous plot with ample parking, it includes a large workshop/garage (approx. 7m x 5.7m) suitable for multiple vehicles or home working and a second single garage currently used as storage and offering potential for conversion. The garden is mainly lawned with fruit trees and a patio area. Inside, the home features a modern, refitted kitchen with integrated appliances and central island, spacious living room, garden room, office/fourth bedroom, and utility space. The upstairs layout includes three double bedrooms, two with large dressing areas and a spacious shower room. The property benefits from oil-fired central heating and double glazing throughout.
