DESCRIPTION

Originally a single dwelling built approximately 130 years ago, this charming property retains many character features, including a traditional bread oven, wrought iron fireplaces, and Mullion stonecast windows to the front, thoughtfully upgraded with double glazing for added warmth. The house was extended to the side, providing garage space along with additional bedroom and en suite. The loft has been converted to offer two large double bedrooms and washroom with WC. Set on a generous plot of approximately 0.25 acres, the rear garden of Bramwell House offers a private and tranquil retreat, with large lawn, patio areas, water feature, pizza oven, several useful outbuildings and summer house. Upon entering the main house, you are greeted by two spacious reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet family evenings. Period features throughout add charm and warmth, while the thoughtfully designed layout ensures a seamless flow between rooms, creating a harmonious living space. With five to six well appointed bedrooms over two floors and bathroom or WC on every level, this remarkable home offers both historical charm and modern comfort. The adjoining ANNEXE boasts its own private front access, courtyard garden with side entry.

THE ACCOMMODATION

(Please note that our room sizes are quoted in metres to the nearest one hundredth of a metre on a wall to wall basis. The imperial equivalent (included in brackets) is only intended as an approximate guide).

ENTRANCE HALLWAY

A welcoming hallway featuring an attractive sage green glazed front door and a double glazed window to front. The stone tiled flooring adds a touch of elegance, while bespoke under-stair pull out storage offers practical organisation, radiator and stairs to first floor.

LOUNGE 6.61m x 3.44m (21'8" x 11'3")

This room exudes a warm and welcoming atmosphere, featuring an attractive fireplace with a woodburning stove, wooden mantle, and slate hearth. A cast stone 'Mullion' window to the front incorporates a double glazed unit, allowing natural light to fill the space. A door leading through to the rear garden room, which boasts a bespoke library wall.

OPEN PLAN KITCHEN/DINING ROOM 6.64m x 4.02m max (21'9" x 13'2" max)

This family space is ideal for entertaining while prepping, featuring attractive stone flooring that flows seamlessly from the hallway into the dining area and kitchen, creating a continuous sense of spaciousness. Dual aspect windows to the front and rear flood the room with natural light, giving it a bright and airy feel. This family room truly serves as the heart of the home, perfect for both family gatherings and entertaining guests.

Kitchen Area:

Upgraded approximately eight years ago, this kitchen features bespoke wooden wall and base units with pull-out drawers, providing excellent storage solutions. Wooden worktops offer ample surface space for food preparation, complemented by a sink and drainer with mixer tap. Built-in appliances include a dishwasher and fridge for added convenience. The centerpiece is the 'Everhot' electric range, nestled within the chimney breast, featuring two hot plates and double ovens and two plate warmers with extractor over. A double glazed window overlooks the rear garden, while an internal door leads to the back door and cloakroom.

Dining Area:

Offering a versatile space for both lounging and family dining, this room features a radiator, a charming 'Mullion' style window to the front and a high ceiling with attractive coving and picture rails.
