SITUATION

This property occupies a pleasant cul-de-sac position in this development off Box Road in Cam and is on the outskirts of the village being well placed for the Park and Ride railway station which has regular services to Gloucester and Bristol with inward connections to the national rail network. There is a Budgens shop within a few minutes walk and Cam village is within a few minutes drive having a Tesco supermarket and a range of local traders. There are three primary schools within Cam and Rednock Comprehensive School is in Dursley which has a larger range of shopping facilities including Sainsburys supermarket, independent retailers, swimming pool, library and community centre.

DIRECTIONS

If travelling from Cam village from the centre at the roundabout close to Tesco supermarket proceed in a northerly direction on the A4135 for three quarters of a mile. On exiting the village take the right hand turning on to Box Road Avenue signposted Cam and Dursley Park and Ride. Proceed for a further 600m and take the left hand turning onto Signal Road and take the immediate turning left and the property will be found shortly on the left hand side.

DESCRIPTION

This nearly new three bedroom semi-detached home was constructed in 2021 and still benefits from the outstanding balance of the 10 year builders warranty. Offered to the market with no onward chain, this home is immaculately presented throughout and has a good sized plot with long driveway to side, front garden and a South-Westerly facing rear garden. Internally, the property briefly comprises; entrance hallway, cloakroom, living room and open plan kitchen/diner. On the first floor there are three bedrooms, master benefiting from en-suite shower room and family bathroom.
