SITUATION

This property is located in a tucked away and elevated position in a collection of unique period properties on the outskirts of Dursley. The property is placed midway between Cam and Dursley centres, Cam has a growing range of facilities including Tesco's supermarket and a range of local traders along with Post Office and doctors and dentist surgeries. The village also has a choice of three primary schools. Dursley town, which is approximately one mile distance, offers a wider range of shopping facilities including Sainsbury's supermarket, primary and secondary schooling.

DIRECTIONS

From Dursley town centre proceed north west out of town on the A4135, while approaching the Kingshill rank of shops, just after the fire station turn right into Kingshill Lane and continue for approximately 500 metres and the parking area will be located on the right hand side (unallocated), just after the turning for Lister Road. Directly opposite the parking area are steps which lead to the property.

DESCRIPTION

Believed to date back to around 1800, this cottage (formerly two cottages) has been in the same ownership for over 40 years and has a larger than average garden in this tucked away and sought after location. One of the main charms of the property is the well presented garden located to front which creates a pleasant and welcoming approach as you enter the property via the pedestrianised access. The gardens directly to the front of the cottage are owned by the property with further courtyard area at the back offering a pleasant outlook and enclosed private space. Internally, the property briefly comprises; entrance porch, small entrance hallway, living room, dining room and kitchen. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms, office/study and bathroom. The property has woodburner to living room, extensive updated double glazing and was re-roofed in 2025 with a 10 year guarantee.
