The Rundels, Benfleet Guide price £375,000

Aspire are pleased to present this three-bedroom semi-detached home, ideally positioned within The Rundels and just a short walk from the shops, cafés and everyday conveniences of Thundersley Village.

Offering a practical layout, a generous rear garden and excellent parking, the property provides all the key ingredients for comfortable family life, with further potential for the next owners to make it their own.

The generous rear garden is a standout feature, offering plenty of room for children to play, outdoor dining, gardening or future landscaping. Useful side access leads from the front of the property into the garden.

The home also benefits from its own detached garage and a substantial driveway providing off-street parking for multiple vehicles, ideal for families and visiting guests.

The Rundels is well positioned for Thundersley Primary School and The Deanes, while Thundersley Village is within walking distance for independent shops, cafés and local amenities.
