Wickham Place, Basildon Offers in excess of £375,000

Situated on the sought-after Woodlands Estate in Kingswood, this beautifully presented three-bedroom home offers modern, exceptionally well-maintained accommodation alongside a feature that is increasingly difficult to find in this part of Basildon: a rear garden backing directly onto an open field. Combining stylish interiors with a lovely sense of space beyond the garden, this property is an appealing opportunity for buyers seeking a home ready to move straight into.

The interior has been carefully maintained throughout, creating a fresh, contemporary feel. The living accommodation provides a welcoming setting for everyday family life, while the thoughtfully presented rooms offer a balance of comfort and practicality. A convenient downstairs WC adds further functionality, particularly for families and when entertaining guests.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress, with three bedrooms and a bright landing enhanced by a skylight above the staircase. This attractive feature allows natural light to filter through the upper floor, adding to the home's light and airy feel.

Outside, the beautifully maintained rear garden provides an inviting space for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the warmer months. Beyond the garden, the open field creates an attractive outlook and a welcome sense of openness rarely found among homes in the surrounding area. It is a particularly appealing feature that sets this property apart.

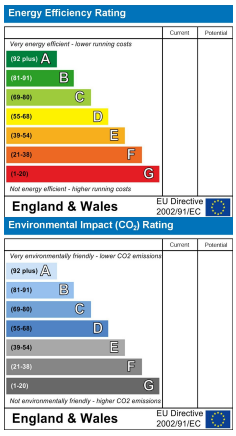

The location is equally convenient, with Kingswood Primary School and Nursery and Woodlands School nearby. Local shops, Kingswood Medical Centre and Kingswood Park are also close by, while Basildon railway station offers direct C2C services to London Fenchurch Street. Basildon town centre and Basildon University Hospital are also within easy reach.

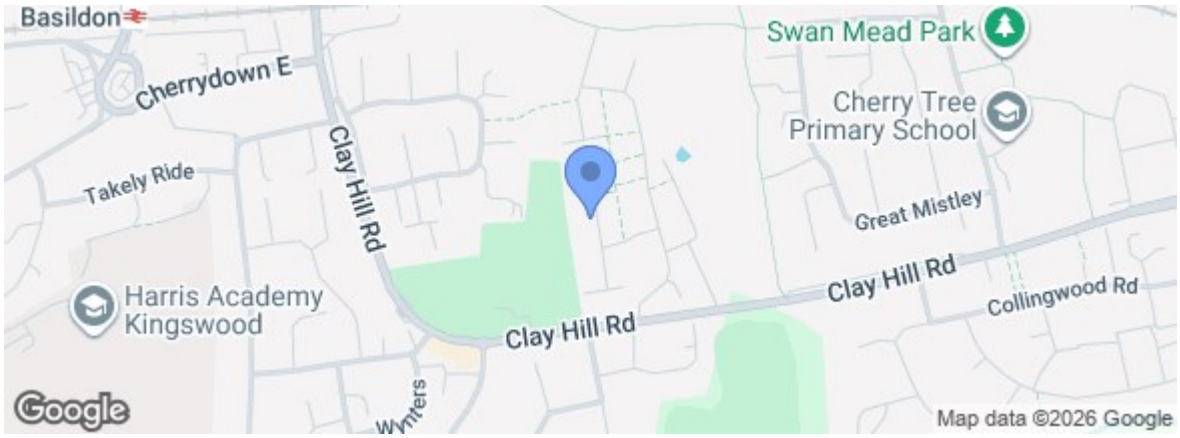

Combining beautifully maintained interiors, a lovely garden, a downstairs WC and the rare advantage of backing onto an open field, this is a home that genuinely stands ou
