ASPIRE

Uplands Park Road, Rayleigh £600,000

This exceptional, architecturally designed three-bedroom family home, set across three expansive floors, is crafted to impress at every turn. Soaring double-height windows and a striking mezzanine entrance welcome you into the reception area, which overlooks a breath-taking subterranean open-plan lounge, kitchen, and dining space, with views extending to the beautifully manicured rear garden. Without a shadow of a doubt, this is truly a one-of-a-kind residence! That truly needs to be seen to appreciate all it offers.

The subterranean open-plan living area is a masterpiece of modern design, where a sleek high-gloss kitchen flows effortlessly into the light-filled lounge and dining areas. A separate formal dining room offers the perfect space for elegant entertaining, while the octagonal feature glass floor provides a dramatic view from the mezzanine floor above, down into the kitchen below. A captivating and unique design element, that is sure to spark conversation as soon as you enter this incredible residence.

The principal bedroom serves as a tranquil retreat, complete with fitted wardrobes and a luxurious contemporary en-suite. Two further well-appointed bedrooms and a stylish family bathroom provide ample space for family members or guests.

Outside, the landscaped garden is a private haven, with a terrace overlooking the lawn, ideal for summer entertaining or quiet relaxation. The property also benefits from a garage, carport, and generous off-road parking.

Situated in a highly sought-after location, just moments from well-regarded schools including Fitzwimarc School, and within easy walking distance of the High Street and mainline station, this home offers both style and convenience. Rarely does a property of this calibre come to market, so early viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate all that this extraordinary family home has to offer.
