

£1,650 PCM

67 Blenheim Road, Berkshire, RG1 5NG

Well-Presented Three Bedroom Mid-Terraced Home – Prime Reading Location

A well-presented part-furnished mid-terraced house ideally situated within close proximity to Reading University, Royal Berkshire Hospital, Reading train station, and the ever-popular Yalk Café.

The accommodation on the ground floor comprises an entrance hall, a spacious living room, a separate dining room, and a fully fitted kitchen complete with oven, hob, extractor fan, fridge, and washing machine. To the rear, a useful lean-to provides additional storage and includes a tumble dryer and freezer.

Upstairs offers two generously sized double bedrooms, a good-sized single bedroom, and an upstairs cloakroom. The main bathroom is located on the ground floor and features a shower.

Further benefits include gas central heating and a large, enclosed rear garden, ideal for outdoor entertaining or relaxation.

This property is perfectly suited for professionals or students seeking convenient access to key local amenities and transport links.

