Description

Stepping into the property, you are welcomed by a spacious and inviting living room—generous enough to accommodate a variety of furniture layouts while still maintaining a warm, cozy atmosphere. From here, you move into the kitchen–diner, which mirrors the same sense of space and character. This room benefits from a useful under-stairs storage cupboard and ample room for a family dining table.

The layout flows naturally into a well-proportioned utility room, offering plenty of space for appliances such as a dishwasher, washing machine, and additional refrigeration—ideal for meeting the needs of a busy household while freeing up space elsewhere. A contemporary and practical bathroom sits on the ground floor, complete with a shower-over-bath.

Ascending to the first floor, you'll find two bright bedrooms featuring large sash windows that allow natural light to pour in. High ceilings enhance the feeling of space, providing generous room for wardrobes, storage, and sizeable beds.

On the upper floor, two additional bedrooms make excellent use of dormer windows, bringing in even more natural light. Their unique shapes and proportions highlight the charm and character of this pre-1900s home, combining period features with a comfortable, versatile layout.

There is also ample on street parking.
