ABOUT THE AREA

With its golden sandy beaches and the rhythmic melody of waves, Margate invites you to bask in the timeless beauty of the sea. The iconic Dreamland, a vintage amusement park, adds a touch of nostalgia to the lively promenade.

As you wander through Margate's streets, you'll discover a blend of historic architecture and contemporary creativity. The town has become a haven for artists and enthusiasts, with galleries and studios tucked away in unexpected corners. The Turner Contemporary, a cutting-edge art gallery, stands as both a cultural landmark and a testament to Margate's commitment to the arts.

Quaint cafes, independent boutiques, and eclectic shops line the streets, offering a delightful mix of treasures waiting to be uncovered. Whether you're indulging in local seafood delicacies or sipping coffee in a sunlit courtyard, Margate's culinary scene reflects its diverse and welcoming spirit.

For commuting options and trips to the capital, Margate train station is just 0.4 miles away with trains to London St Pancras in under 1hr 30 mins.
