Animal Farm Mill Road, Canterbury, CT3 1LB £950,000

A charming period farmhouse occupying two acres of land and multi-generational living potential.

Animal Farm has been a cherished family home for many years, and now presents a wonderful opportunity for someone to create the home of their dreams.

Believed to date back to the 1600s, the original part of the main house exudes character and charm throughout. The property offers two generous reception rooms, both featuring open inglenook fireplaces, a welcoming reception hall, a kitchen, dining area, and ground floor WC — all providing flexible and comfortable living space.

Adjoining the main residence is a two-bedroom annexe, which can be accessed from one of the reception rooms. The annexe offers open-plan living with kitchen area, a modern wet room, and two well-proportioned bedrooms. It is ideally suited for multi-generational living, guest accommodation, or even as an independent rental opportunity.

The property sits on a 0.24-acre plot, while an additional 1.87 acres of land is included under a separate title — perfect for those seeking space for hobby farming, equestrian use, or simply to enjoy the surrounding countryside.

Externally, there is ample parking and the home enjoys an enviable position on Mill Lane, in the picturesque village of Staple, offering peace, charm, and a true sense of rural community.

Animal Farm represents a rare opportunity to own a piece of local history, with endless scope to restore, modernise, or extend (subject to planning) — a truly special home ready to begin its next chapter.

Location

Nestled in the picturesque countryside of east Kent, Staple is a charming rural village and civil parish within the Dover district, about eight miles east of Canterbury and near Sandwich.

Staple boasts a welcoming community spirit, supported by a village hall, recreation ground, and local amenities such as The Black Pig pub in Barnsole and The Frog & Orange in Shatterling. Schools nearby include Goodnestone CE Primary and Ash Cartwright & Kelsey CE Primary, with Sandwich Technology School serving older students. Healthcare is close at hand via Ash Surgery, and St Martin's Hospital in Canterbury is within easy reach.

Transport links are good for a rural area: regular bus services connect to Canterbury and Sandwich, while Canterbury West station provides high-speed trains to London St Pancras in under an hour—making Staple ideal for commuters seeking village tranquility.
