Ground-Floor Retail Unit Available for Immediate Occupation

This attractive ground-floor retail unit is available for immediate occupation and has been tastefully decorated to create a charming rustic feel.

Offering a versatile Class E commercial space, the property is ideal for a wide range of retail or business uses—whether you're an established business seeking larger premises or a start-up looking for the perfect first location.

Occupying a prominent corner position, the shop benefits from excellent natural light flooding through the large display windows, making it ideal for showcasing your business. The layout includes two separate entrances leading into a spacious main retail area, creating a flexible and welcoming commercial environment.

To the rear, the property features a kitchen, useful storage space, and doors opening onto a patio garden area, adding practicality and additional flexibility.

Please note: The VOA assessment may require adjustment due to alterations made to the layout.
