

Dunmaglas, Main Street

East Whitburn, EH47 0JD

Offers over £260,000

Set within the centre of the sought after village of East Whitburn, “Dunmaglas” is a deceptively spacious 4 bedroom semi-detached property that offers wonderful space for a family to grow. Situated directly on Main Street, the property is handily located for use of the nearby village store whilst neighbouring Whitburn provides further shopping and recreational amenities alongside schooling to cater for all ages. Travel throughout the wider region is offered via M8 junction 4 at the east of the property whilst a train station in nearby Armadale provides additional commuting options. Excellent walking routes surround the village, linking to neighbouring communities and offering scenic countryside to explore.

Description

The property itself is a traditional stone built cottage that dates to the early 1900's and originally served as the grocers store for the village. A hallmark of all properties of this age, there is generous ceiling height to the ground floor and a footprint of 1500 sqft that has been tastefully upgraded with a contemporary twist. An excellent sized living room is perfect for hosting family gatherings or for everyday relaxing, whilst an upgraded fitted kitchen features a range of storage cabinets, space for all the essential appliances and ample room for daily meals. The smaller 4th bedroom and a modern family bathroom are to the ground floor, suiting those with mobility needs or for a teenager looking for their own space. The upper level includes 3 similarly sized double bedrooms, perfect for meeting family or home working needs if a study is required. A shower room with 3 piece suite is an added benefit, meaning there is washing facilities on both levels to meet everyday convenience. Externally the property shares the parking yard with the 2 neighbouring properties, but there is ample space for a handful of cars. Gas central heating and renewed windows throughout are further highlights, with triple glazing installed to the ground floor. An enclosed rear garden is laid to lawn with a terrace for enjoying the best of the sunny weather, with a further decked area immediately outside the kitchen French doors.
