OCTOBER 2026

Located within a stunning, tree lined setting offering excellent access to the station and desirable schools.

This superbly extended 5 bedroom detached home occupies a generous corner plot with south, east and westerly aspects. Extended by its current owners, this mid century home has evolved into a stylish contemporary living space ideal for modern needs. The kitchen family room is well appointed in the centre of the house. This space is beautiful enhanced with connecting canter leaver doors opening onto covered al-fresco terrace. There are 4 reception rooms, utility and a ground floor shower room both ideal for muddy children!

The bedrooms are all of a good size with a en-suite to the master and a family bathroom.

Externally, parking for several vehicles. Small garage/ useful integrated store. Gated access to both sides of the house. Paved patios wrap around the house with a raised sun terrace well appointed for the sunshine.

Viewing

By appointment with Norgans Estate Agents.

The location

One of Hitchin's most sought after areas. Commuters love this spot with alley way access through to the station in around 10 minutes walk. Hitchin Girls school is just up the road as is Pinehill recreation ground, Benslow music school and Pinehill private hospital are also nearby.

The town centre is less than a mile and access to the stunning countryside surrounding Hitchin a similar distance..
