PROPERTY OVERVIEW

St Mary's School House, High Street, Carlton, Goole, DN14 9LY is a beautiful and historically significant Victorian detached former school, built in 1879 by the Carlton Towers estate. Originally serving as the village school and closely linked to the adjacent St Mary's Catholic Church, the property retains many wonderful period features while having been sympathetically and lovingly renovated by the current owners into a spacious and characterful family home. The building is constructed of traditional red brick with slate roofs and features a distinctive bell tower that adds to its historic charm and presence. It sits on a generous plot with attractive gardens and benefits from a double garage. Inside, it offers versatile accommodation. One of the most striking original features is the retention of the separate boys' and girls' entrance doors, leading into the Open Plan Living Area with its raised floor level, to take full advantage of the views from the windows. Throughout the property, high ceilings create an exceptional sense of space and light, complemented by numerous period details that have been carefully preserved.

The renovation has successfully blended heritage charm with modern living. The breakfast kitchen is particularly impressive, featuring a large central island with induction hob, sleek grey cabinetry, integrated appliances, mirrored plinths and contemporary lighting. The principal living areas boast soaring vaulted ceilings with magnificent exposed timber beams and trusses, along with a striking brick fireplace that makes for a wonderful focal point, housing an impressive 30kw multi-fuel burner. Gothic-style arched windows and elegant arched openings further enhance the character, along with the office space showcasing dramatic high-level wooden architecture. In addition, the loft space is well-lit by Velux windows and offers excellent potential for conversion, subject to the necessary consents.

This is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Carlton's local history. The property combines substantial period grandeur with comfortable, contemporary family living in a convenient village setting. Located in the heart of Carlton, near Goole and Selby, it sits close to local amenities, schools, pubs, and the historic Carlton Towers estate itself, with good commuter links to York, Leeds, and Hull. St Mary's School House represents a unique and characterful home that successfully honours its 1879 educational origins while offering beautifully renovated living spaces for modern family life.
