

The Old Vicarage, Rythergate

Park Row

Offers Over £1,500,000

Cawood | Selby | YO8 3TP

Available for only the second time ever onto the open market! Built in the mid-19th Century, The Old Vicarage proudly occupies extensive private grounds within the heart of Cawood and offers a spectacular family home. The property has been sympathetically restored whilst maintaining many of the original features. All windows and doors, with the exception of the entrance door, are crafted from 'Accoya' timber. The attention to detail extends to the design of the window architrave which matches the pattern on the original interior panelled doors. The property has a Ground Source Heat Pump and the majority of the Ground Floor benefits from underfloor heating and is controlled by individual thermostatic control zones. Also installed is a full smoke detection system.

This impressive Victorian double-fronted property boasts of surrounding views of the substantial landscaped grounds which wrap around the property. Offering flexible living accommodation with the option of an Annexe with Lounge, Kitchen, Shower Room and Bedroom to the Ground Floor, the property also boasts of two further Reception Rooms, Kitchen and Ground Floor w.c. Upstairs are a further four bedrooms, three of which benefit from En-suite Bathrooms.

The historic village of Cawood gives residents the idyllic village life with local businesses and countryside walks on its doorstep, whilst being a prime location for commuter routes to York, Leeds and Harrogate.
