INTRODUCTION

Nestled on Westfield Lane in the charming village of South Milford, Leeds, this unique terraced house offers a delightful blend of character and modern living. Originally an old school, this property has been thoughtfully converted into four terraced homes, preserving its original features while providing a comfortable and inviting atmosphere.

Spanning an impressive 1,305 square feet, the home boasts two reception rooms, including a spacious lounge that is perfect for relaxation and entertaining. The lounge features striking windows and exposed beams that add to its charm, along with a traditional brick-built fireplace that serves as a focal point. The heart of the home is the sweeping L-shaped open plan kitchen and dining room, which is ideal for family gatherings and social occasions. Internal double doors lead seamlessly from the dining area into the lounge, enhancing the flow of the living space.

The property comprises three well-proportioned bedrooms, providing ample space for family or guests. A bathroom and a convenient downstairs w/c add to the practicality of the home. Throughout the property, you will find beautiful barn-style internal doors that further enhance its unique character.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden offers a retreat, complete with space for outdoor seating, making it an excellent spot for enjoying the fresh air or hosting summer barbecues. Additionally, there is parking available for one vehicle, ensuring convenience for residents.

This charming terraced house is a rare find, combining historical significance with contemporary comforts, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a distinctive home in a lovely setting.
