INTRODUCTION

Nestled within the historic Grimston Park Estate in Tadcaster, this charming terraced house, formerly the scullery of the main house, offers a delightful blend of period character and modern living. Spanning an impressive 1,472 square feet, the property boasts three well-appointed bedrooms, including a master suite with an en-suite bathroom, ensuring comfort and privacy for all residents.

The home features two inviting reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet family time. The interior is beautifully presented, showcasing a harmonious mix of contemporary design and traditional elegance. The modern features enhance the overall appeal, making it a truly spectacular residence.

Outside, the property benefits from a lovely front courtyard, providing an ideal space for outdoor seating and relaxation amidst the picturesque surroundings of the estate. Additionally, there is a garage and off-street parking available for one vehicle with additional guest parking available, adding convenience to this already attractive home.

Living in Grimston Park means being part of a prestigious estate, once associated with the renowned architect Decimus Burton. This unique location offers a serene countryside lifestyle while remaining close to local amenities and transport links. This property is not just a house; it is a unique opportunity to own a piece of history in a stunning setting. Whether you are looking for a family home or a tranquil retreat, this beautifully converted house is sure to impress.
