A home that keeps on giving! Spanning the upper floors of a handsome period building on a peaceful, leafy street, this fantastic 3/4 bedder supplies a substantial and tasteful living environment throughout. The property enjoys a well appointed upward conversion and includes three lovely double bedrooms, a large reception, kitchen/diner, study/nursery, bathroom, shower room and wc. This is in addition to the wonderful amenities of Lordship Lane. Transport is a cinch with East Dulwich, Peckham Rye and Denmark Hill Stations each walkable.

A handsome exterior invites you inward to the flat's ground floor entrance. A carpeted inner stairs leads upward to the first return where you find a large kitchen/diner with abundant cabinet and counter space on two walls and a large rear-facing sash window. Appliances include a four ring gas hob and oven. A neat wc sits next to this with modern loo, wash hand basin and a side aspect window. A half flight ascent from here leads to a fabulous front-facing reception. It's a wide, bright room with original timber floors. A lovely period fireplace with coal effect gas fire is flanked by low-level storage units and raised shelving. A triptych of sash windows fronts the street for plenty of light. A large double bedrooms completes this level boasting twin bespoke fitted storage and a pleasant rear aspect.

Another half flight ascent brings you to the second return where another lovely double bedroom supplies fitted storage and fresh carpeting. A mostly tiled side-facing bathroom with clean white suite sits politely next door. A final upward trot supplies a boastful dual aspect master bedroom with adjoining dressing area and eaves storage. Next to this sits a cute single room/study with gently sloping eaves and large skylight. Further along the upper landing you find a fancy fully tiled shower room and access to the wonderful roof terrace which affords you a peaceful rooftop haven.
