The Personal Agent are proud to present this unique and charming character property that forms part of a former country retreat with a historic past. One of the many standout points of this property is its breathtaking panoramic views across The Surrey Hills, towards The South Downs.

Mount Hall, as it was originally known, was built in 1906 by the Duke of Wellingtons great grandson, Lord Wellesley as a grand country home with commanding views. During its interesting history it was even commandeered by the Canadian army in WWII and then in more recent years converted and sympathetically sub-divided into four separate residences.

The property is arranged in such away that the majority of the reception rooms and bedrooms capitalise on the outlook with a bright Southerly facing aspect.

The reception hallway welcomes you and leads to the 25ft sitting room with its open fireplace and double doors stepping directly out onto the rear terrace overlooking the gardens and stunning views.

The kitchen/dining/family room is arranged so it forms the social hub of this home and has a bespoke finish with a large central island. The family area enjoys fine views over the rear terrace and has double doors that step directly out on to the patio area, which is ideal for alfresco dining.

Further space to the ground floor includes a study, conservatory/day room, utility room and cloakroom. On the first floor is the principal bedroom which enjoys a bay window providing fine views, an en-suite shower room and a separate enclosed dressing area. The second bedroom includes an ensuite bathroom and an enclosed dressing room. A turning staircase leads to the second floor where there are two further bedrooms served by a shower room. Also to note; there are two cellar rooms/workshops in the basement.

The property enjoys a wonderful rural position with access to many delightful walks over the local National Trust heathland and direct access to bridle paths. Access onto the North Downs Way provides the most stunning views.

Reigate is just over 4 miles away providing a comprehensive range of local shops, restaurants, cafes and coffee shops. Reigate also boasts a number of good state and independent schools for all ages. Buses go from Lower Kingswood to Dorking, Banstead and Reigate Secondary schools.

Excellent transport links with nearby M25 (Jct. 8) providing connections to the wider motorway network and both Gatwick and Heathrow airports and good access to London via nearby stations of Tadworth, Merstham or Redhill.

The property is approached via a wooded copse which then leads to Mount Hill, there is a communal driveway area and the property has the benefit of three garages. The gardens are formed of a terrace with numerous areas for seating, a formal lawn encompassed by well stocked beds and borders that enjoy stunning and breathtaking views of the Surrey countryside and beyond. Plot approximately 0.94 of an acre in total.
